The new River boat Rex started on its first trip up the Stikine River early Thursday morning carrying passengers. Some trouble with one of the engines developed on the way and Capt. Kalkins found it necessary to return to port during the afternoon.

Have your plumbing and repair work done by Harry Brice.

New Boat Makes A Fast Trip

The new river boat Hazel B. II returned yesterday from her initial trip up the Stikine River to Telegraph, having made the trip in record time. The trip up was made in less than 35 hours running time, and the trip back in ten and a half hours. The Hazel B. II carried several passengers for Telegraph among them being the Editor and Mr. Ralph Edmonds big game hunter and well known writer for the Outdoor Life, who will spend two months hunting in the Kachika river country.

The Hazel B. II demonstrated the fact that she is the boat for the river and will be able to make regular trips at any stage of the water, and while the trip is a hard one the boat is equipped with such powerful engines that at few times on the river was she forced to use their full power and at no time was she forced to line. Captain S. C. Barrington of the Hazel B. II states that he will leave again next Tuesday and returning again Friday.

Flour Jumps To Nine Dollars A Barrel

New York, Aug. 12—Flour jumped from five to nine dollars a barrel in this city yesterday. It is predicted that the raise will take effect all over the country and will raise higher before winter.

Excursion A Great Success

About forty people took advantage of the excursion trip to the Big Glacier given by the new river boat, Hazel B. II, last Sunday. The weather did not look promising but the excursionists encountered sunshine when a distance out from Wrangell and a delightful day was reported. Capt. Barrington made the trip a complimentary one and served coffee twice, an attention which was greatly appreciated.

The Editor is indebted to Capt. S. C. Barrington of the Hazel B. II for a great vacation trip this week to Telegraph Creek. B. C. The trip for a few days outing cannot be excelled and is certainly worth anyone's time and expenses. The boat is a roomy and comfortable one to travel on and her crew is second to none.

Eastern Hunting Party Here

A party of hunters arrived in Wrangell on the Prince George Thursday morning bound for the Stikine country in search of big game. They will be gone about two months. In the party were Robert Uhline of Milwaukee who was here four years ago, Dr. H. A. Sifton, also of Milwaukee who is really an old timer as far as Wrangell is concerned, this being his third trip here, J. Stanley Foster, Ponhatan Roptson and Heyward Cutting of New York City and A. E. Vincelle of Fitchburg Mass. They left the same forenoon on the Karen which had been chartered for the trip up the Stikine.

Let Harry Brice do your plumbing and repair work.

St. Phillips Guild Entertains

Mr. E. M. Frabor who has served as lay reader in St. Phillips Church for the past seven weeks was honor guest at a farewell reception given by the Guild Tuesday evening. The Gymnasium which was the scene of the festivities had been completely transformed by flowers and greenery, and the soft glow of Japanese lanterns. The affair was entirely informal in character and about sixty people responded to the general invitation which had been extended by the ladies of the Church.

Games, story telling and an impromptu program in which Mrs. M. O. Johnson, Mr. A. B. Pennycook, Miss Grace Wigg, Miss Marie McKinnie, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Warren took part furnished the entertainment. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the Guild and at the close of the evening the entire gathering joined in singing a few old time songs.

Mr. Traber, who is an instructor in Stadium High School of Tacoma, Wash., and an assistant to Dr. Webb of St. Luke's Church of that city, left for his home on the City of Seattle. Beside his work in the pulpit of the Church, his efficiency as a choir director proves a valuable help during his brief stay here and he made many friends.

Dragging In Wrangell Harbor For Rocks

Editorial

On August 3rd a man's death in England was chronicled in glaring headlines in all newspapers. In these days of Carnage and Bomb outrages one death would not ordinarily mean much to the world at large, but this was an unusual occasion. A man, an erstwhile knight, had been found guilty of high treason by a mighty nation and condemned to die. Writers are fond of dwelling on the faintness of the borderline between sanity and insanity. Perhaps Roger Casement in his zeal for Ireland stepped just over this line. We do not presume to judge. Some there are who laud him a hero, and many there are who condemn him unhesitatingly. Be that as it may, Casement has paid the supreme penalty and, this is the point, he paid it like a man. There was no cringing no expression of regret. Denied a reprieve, he put his house in order and faced his fate calmly. Truly as someone said recently, "They know how to die, these gentlemen"

Now comes one Professor Berthold Reese, of psychic fame, and predicts that the great world war will end September 7th of this year. Heres hoping!
